General Provisions

The International Arts Competition Festival "DIAMOND FEST" is a large-scale cultural project aimed at supporting and nurturing talented children and young people, fostering their creative potential, and strengthening cultural connections between regions.

Festival Objectives

- to identify talented and gifted children, young people, and adults;
- to support and foster the creative abilities of participants;
- to create an open cultural environment for free artistic expression and creative exchange;
- to promote interregional and international cooperation in the fields of culture and the arts;
- to promote Ukrainian art and culture among young people;
- to discover and support promising creative projects.

Festival Tasks

- to encourage children and young people to actively participate in cultural life;
 - to promote creative collaboration and cultural exchange;
 - to enhance participants' performance skills and artistic excellence;
 - to systematize and promote best practices of creative groups and artistic ensembles;
 - to create opportunities for the professional growth and development of participants.

Participation Terms

Children's, youth, and adult amateur and professional groups, as well as individual performers, are invited to participate in the Festival.

Each participant or group may present one or more performances within the same nomination and age category.

Participation in an additional nomination is subject to a separate participation fee with a 10% discount.

After submitting the participation application, please complete the following steps:

1. Wait for a Telegram message from the Festival Organizer, Taisiia, after the registration period has closed.
2. Pay the participation fee to the individual entrepreneur (FOP) bank account provided by the organizer.
3. The performance schedule (timetable) will be published in the Telegram channel, to which you will be added after your participation fee has been received.
4. Bring a USB flash drive containing a backup copy of your performance soundtrack.

If you experience any difficulties uploading your soundtrack to the Google application form, please send your competition soundtrack in MP3 format, named with the title of the performance, to the following email address: diamond.festival.t@gmail.com.
